

Toastmasters Leadership Institute
Winter, 2010

You, as a Toastmasters Club Member, are invited to spend a few hours one Saturday morning:

- Meeting and networking with fascinating people
- Attending thought-provoking workshops
- Learning career-enhancing communication and leadership techniques

Why attend the Toastmasters Leadership Institute (TLI)? Benefits for your career, personal life, and as a Toastmaster!

Learning

Officer training
Beyond the manual—how to put it to work
Trainers who have been there, done that, blazed a trail for you to follow
Ideas from other club officers
Become an effective officer, honing your leadership skills while helping the club improve

Business and communication workshops

Toastmasters skills: Contest Judging, Evaluations, Membership Building and much more
Use them in your club; take them into the rest of your life as well

Networking

Toastmasters from throughout North Carolina

Club points

All clubs must have at least four club officers trained at both of the summer and winter TLI's or lose that point. All current Toastmasters Club members encouraged to attend.

What's in it for you?

Work with District 37 leaders and professional trainers
An opportunity to purchase Toastmasters supplies from the Bookstore
Attendance is open to club and district officers as well as non-officers

Where can you do all this, and get Distinguished Club Program points for your club?

At Toastmasters Leadership Institute!

Mark your calendars for Saturday, January 23, 2010 for the TLI EAST.

8 a.m. to noon for club officers, Area and Division Governors
1:00 to 3:00 for Area and Division Governors

Location: First Baptist Church, 99 North Salisbury Street, Raleigh, NC
Downtown Raleigh (there are two First Baptists in downtown Raleigh....this is the one across from the State Capitol).

<http://www.fbcraleigh.org/>

Parking in downtown Raleigh is free on the weekends. Also, if you have children and grandchildren, please note that the North Carolina Museum of History (where the race cars are) and the North Carolina Museum of Natural Sciences (where the dinosaurs are) will be open. The State Capitol should also be open for tours.

Mark your calendars for Saturday, January 30, 2010 for the TLI WEST.

8 a.m. to noon for club officers, Area and Division Governors
1:00 to 3:00 for Area and Division Governors

Location: The University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Student Union
Building, 9201 University City Blvd, Charlotte, NC

Parking is FREE on the weekends. We will park in the Union Deck (behind the Student Union), however if that fills up, people will need to go over to the Cone Deck (near the Cone Center), or the West Deck (near Halton Arena).

You are highly advised to print out a copy of the UNC Charlotte campus and have it with you the morning of the TLI, just to make sure you are able to navigate around the campus.

How do you register?

Complete the registration form and mail to Gail Barker.

Note for credit card users: For security reasons you will need to provide the first four numbers of your home address and your zip code, but will not need to provide your security code. You may also call Gail to provide your credit card information.

Everyone can benefit from TLI in so many ways. Challenge yourself to attend on Saturday, January 23 and 30. You will be glad you did!
