SUMMARIES OF EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS

(Select 2 sessions to attend. They are each offered twice, once at 10:10am and again at 11:10am)

Distinguished Club Program – Johnny Piercy Training Room #5

Everyone knows about the Distinguished Club Plan, but is everyone on board in achieving this goal? This session will talk about strategy in getting everyone excited about becoming Distinguished.

Should I Consider Being a District Officer? – Ken Miller Training Room #2

What you need to know and why you should consider being a District officer. Focus is on Area Governor and Division Governor.

International Speech Contest - Serious Fun – Joel Schanker Training Room #6

This interactive session is for those Toastmasters who are preparing for the 2010 International Speech Contest. Delve into the three (3) components to a contest-winning approach: the speech, the presentation, and the preparation.

How to Make Your Club Feel Like Home – Bryan Walsh, Barney Barnum Training Room #4

Co-presenters, Bryan Walsh, DTM, Lt Gov Marketing and Barney Barnum, DTM, PDG and will bring you “best practices” of top-performing, winning TM clubs to attract and retain members. Come prepared for fun, laughter, games, and prizes for an interactive session you won’t forget.

Judging Certification – Wini Curley Training Room #1

The ultimate test of your Toastmasters' skills, being a contest judge, is like no other task in Toastmasters. Test your analytical skills, your knowledge of speaking, listening skills, and your commitment to helping others grow while helping yourself grow as well. Explore the idiosyncrasies of judging versus evaluating. Discover the pitfalls and the footbridges to successful judging. This certification is required before you can serve as a judge at Division- and District-level contests.

Tips for Effective Evaluations – Patrick Curley Training Room #3

How can we give instructive, yet encouraging speech evaluations after hearing the speech only minutes before? In today’s presentation, learn five (5) pointers on giving effective speech evaluations that will benefit not only the speaker, but strengthen and improve your club as well.
